

Dear Colleague,

You are an essential member of this University's community. We are proud to serve our students with you. Your daily effort to provide the essential needs and educational wants of our students is unparalleled.

Because of your dedication to this institution, we would like to ask you to become involved with the annual Faculty and Staff Campaign. Many of our faculty and staff members have already demonstrated their commitment. Giving is a personal decision, so we ask that you too, make a decision with which you are comfortable; it is not the size of the gift that matters.

This is your opportunity to make a change. With the ability to designate your donation to your own department, the Fund for Indiana State, or to hundreds of other programs on campus, you have the opportunity to make a difference in the areas of your interest. For an even greater impact, consider payroll deduction: a simple and effective way to give.

Please take the time to think about your participation.
